1 Introduction

To comply with the Bayh-Dole Act, grantees and contractors who have inventions resulting from their federally financed work performed by their employees (e.g., Principal Investigators and/or other key personnel) must report those inventions. Additionally, they must report specific information to the Federal government within limited times on their efforts at achieving practical application of their inventions, including their decision whether or not to retain ownership of their invention(s) and whether or not to file for patent protection. iEdison not only provides the means for secure invention reporting and data delivery, it performs validation checks on that data (e.g., funding agreement numbers), and reminds users of any additional information that may be needed and when – through email reminders and on-screen notification messages. It also allows organizations with in-house databases to securely upload their information to iEdison and to download their data (e.g., for periodic reconciliation) from the iEdison database at any time. iEdison is used by approximately 30 Federal agency offices for inventions and patent reporting.

1.1 User Roles

Here are the iEdison user roles and their description.

Role	Description
Inventor	The Inventor account type is created for an individual to continue reporting on an invention when an inventor waiver request has been approved. Inventors can create patent reports and create utilization reports for an invention, but cannot create new invention reports because they are not parties to a funding agreement for the performance of research work.
TTO Administrator	The TTO (Technology Transfer Office) account type supports the Technology Transfer/Licensing Office or Office of Research and Development at the extramural organization. This user can submit inventions, patents, and utilization reports, and request waivers. The TTO Administrator also has the ability to create iEdison accounts.
TTO User	The TTO (Technology Transfer Office) account type supports the Technology Transfer/Licensing Office or Office of Research and Development at the extramural organization. This user can submit inventions, patents, and utilization reports, and request waivers.

Table 1: iEdison User Roles

1.2 Accessing iEdison and Other System Information

1.2.1 Special Notes Regarding the Web Browser iEdison is a web-based application. Any registered user with a compatible web browser (Internet Explorer 7.0 or Firefox 26.0 or greater) on a PC or Macintosh and Internet access can log in. Other web browsers are also supported, but some functionality may be lost.

Please use the navigation buttons and hyperlinks provided in the iEdison interface instead of the browser buttons to move through the system screens. Please use the banner links instead of the back button or pressing the delete or backspace keys without a field selected.

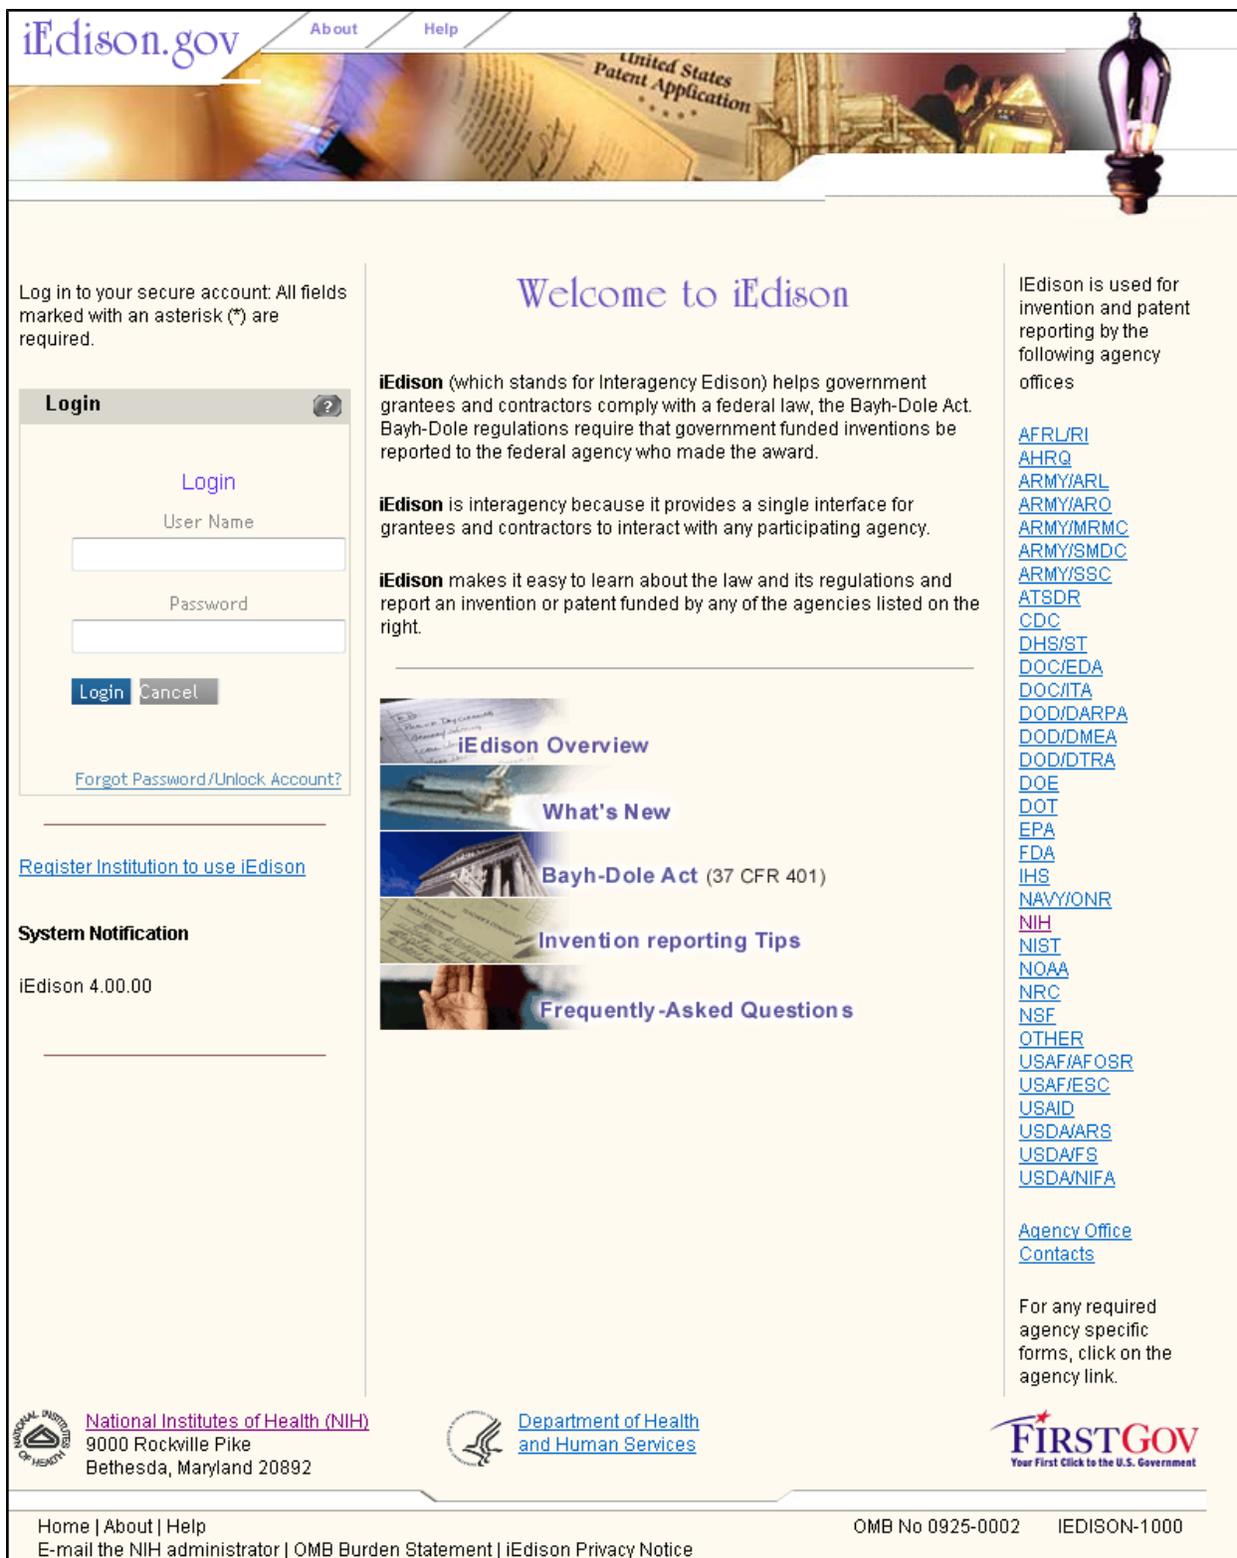

1.2.2 Logging into the System

To log in to the iEdison system, a user account is needed. As part of registering to use iEdison a unique username and password are created. The username and password can be any combination of letters and numbers and each must be between six to twenty characters.

NOTE: If your password is forgotten, first contact the iEdison accounts administrator at your organization. Any individual with a TTO Administrator role is able to reset the password for users within their organization. After the password has been changed, an email notification is sent informing you of a new temporary password. You are required to change the password when you log in using your temporary password.

To login to the iEdison system:

1. Navigate your browser to <https://s-edison.info.nih.gov/iEdison>.
2. Enter your Username and Password in the fields provided.
3. Click the Submit button to open a new iEdison session.

The screenshot shows the iEdison login interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'About' and 'Help' links, and a banner image featuring a 'United States Patent Application' document and a glowing lightbulb. The main content area is divided into three columns. The left column contains a login form with fields for 'User Name' and 'Password', and buttons for 'Login' and 'Cancel'. Below the form is a link for 'Forgot Password/Unlock Account?'. The middle column features a 'Welcome to iEdison' heading, followed by introductory text about the system's purpose and interagency nature. Below this text are several menu items with small images: 'iEdison Overview', 'What's New', 'Bayh-Dole Act (37 CFR 401)', 'Invention reporting Tips', and 'Frequently-Asked Questions'. The right column lists the participating agencies, starting with 'iEdison is used for invention and patent reporting by the following agency offices' and followed by a list of agency acronyms such as AFRL/RI, AHRQ, ARMY/ARL, etc. At the bottom of the page, there are logos for the National Institutes of Health (NIH) and the Department of Health and Human Services, along with the 'FIRST GOV' logo. A footer contains navigation links (Home, About, Help), contact information for the NIH administrator, and OMB and iEdison identifiers.

When the Submit button is clicked and the login is successful, the system normally first displays the View Notification Messages screen.

To view the Main Menu, click the Main Menu tab from the navigation menu at the top of the screen.

1.2.3 Default user Preferences

The new default user preference screen is the View Notification Messages screen. If previously to the January 2014 the default user preference was set to No, the default user preference screen is the Main Menu screen.

1.2.4 Session Expiration (NOTE: This topic may be removed.)

For security purposes, iEdison user sessions terminate after a period of inactivity. The system attempts to display an alert prior to terminating the session which gives the option of keeping the session open or terminating the session. If a decision is not made within five minutes of receiving the notification, the iEdison system automatically terminates the session.

NOTE: If the modified data has not been saved when the session is abandoned, any unsaved changes are lost and need to be re-entered in another session.

1.2.5 Exiting the iEdison System

Logging out of the iEdison system ends the current session. The top and bottom of each screen contains a Logout hyperlink.

To log out of the iEdison system:

1. Select the Logout hyperlink to access the Log Out of iEdison screen.
2. Click the Yes, I want to log out button to end the current session and open the Welcome to iEdison screen.

1.2.6 Account Locked

For security reasons, the iEdison system locks an account when the number of maximum login tries has been exceeded. Administrators of the iEdison system set the number of retries allowed. Once an account is locked, the iEdison administrator must be contacted at the organization to get it unlocked. As long as the account remains locked, the secure screens cannot be accessed within the iEdison system. For more information, please refer to the Reset Password topic in the Commons online help or the Unlock an Account topic in the Account Management System (AMS) online help.

1.2.7 Password Expiration

For security purposes, user passwords expire and must be reset. If a user password is about to expire, a message appears when the user logs in. If the password is expired, the system directs the user to select a new password when the next time a login to the system is attempted.

1.3 Contact iEdison User Support

Contact the iEdison user support group using the hyperlink located in the Navigation Menu in the footer of all the base screens. The user support phone number is 301-435-1986. The user support email address is edison@od.nih.gov. Always include the screen identifier or screen name, if applicable, when corresponding with the user support group.

The E-mail the NIH administrator hyperlink located in the footer navigation menu on every screen accesses iEdison's built-in feedback system that allows sending comments, suggestions, problems, etc., to the NIH iEdison Administrator. When clicked, the Send Message to NIH iEdison Administrator screen displays allowing you to select the type of email you want to send (Bug Report, Suggestion, Technical Questions, etc.) and type in your corresponding text.

To send email to the iEdison NIH Administrator:

1. Select E-mail the NIH Administrator hyperlink at the bottom of any screen in the iEdison system to access the Send Message to NIH Administrator screen.
2. Enter your email address.

NOTE: If you are logged in to the iEdison system, this field does not display because the system uses the email address associated with your account.

3. Select the type of email you want to send from the Type of E-mail list.
4. Enter the text of the message you want to send in the Text of E-mail field.
5. Click the Submit button.

When the Submit button is clicked, the system displays the Send Message to NIH iEdison Administrator Confirmation screen and sends an email notification to the NIH iEdison Administrator.

2 Registration Information

2.1 Register an Organization in iEdison

To register your institution in the iEdison system perform the following steps:

1. From the Welcome to iEdison screen, select the Register Institution to Use iEdison hyperlink.

When the Register Institution to Use iEdison hyperlink is clicked, the system displays the Request to Register iEdison Organization screen.

For information on each field, please refer to the Glossary of iEdison Screen Fields topic.

2. Enter the registration request information, noting the following:
 - a. Fields with an asterisk (*) are required.
 - b. Providing any federal funding agreement number that the grantee or contractor organization, has received at anytime in the past will facilitate making a positive identification of the grantee or contractor organization. This also applies to sub-awards or sub-contractors who do not have a direct award. An individual inventor does not have a federal funding agreement number.

- c. The username has a six-character minimum and a twenty-character maximum. This is a unique name that must be assigned to one and only one user.
- d. The username field is case sensitive.

NOTE: A DUNS number is required for registration in iEdison as of Jan. 31, 2014 for Grantee and Contractor organizations. An individual inventor with an assignment from the organization that has waived the rights to that invention does not need a DUNS number to register in iEdison.

- 3. Click the Submit button to enter the registration information or click the Reset button to clear out the fields to start again.

When the Submit button is clicked, the system displays the Request to Register iEdison Organization Step 2 screen is displayed.

- 4. Click the Continue button to access the Interagency Edison Registration Form.

NOTE: You need Adobe Acrobat Reader to display the printable version of the Interagency Edison Registration Form.

5. Print the Interagency Edison Registration Form and then close the window.
6. Perform one of the following options:
 - a. Sign the form, scan the form, and email it to NIH at Edison@od.nih.gov or ...
 - b. Sign the registration form and fax it to NIH at 301-451-5675.
7. Click the Return to iEdison Home Page button.

When the Return to iEdison Home Page button is clicked, the Welcome to iEdison screen is displayed.

2.2 Verify Your Email Address during Registration

Before your grantee or contractor organization's iEdison registration request can be processed, the iEdison system needs to verify the email address associated with the registration request. To accomplish this, an email notification is sent to the email address associated with the registration request. This individual is expected to verify that email address by following the instructions in the email notification.

To verify the email address:

1. From your email client, open the email message with the subject iEdison E-mail Address Verification.
2. Click the email hyperlink in the email message.

5 Invention Report Information

iEdison has the following Invention report functionality:

- Creating an Invention Report (Administrator and User Role only)
- Searching for an Invention Report
- Modifying an Invention Report

5.3 Search for an Invention Report

The search fields on the Invention Report Search screen are all optional. Any desired combination of the fields can be used to perform the invention report search.

To search for an invention report:

1. Select Main Menu tab.
2. Select the Search/Modify Existing Invention Reports hyperlink to access the Invention Report Search screen.

The screenshot shows the iEdison.gov website interface. At the top, there is a navigation menu with links for 'Main Menu', 'Search', 'About', 'Help', and 'Logout'. Below the menu is a banner image featuring a 'United States Patent Application' document and a glowing lightbulb. The text 'Interagency Edison' is prominently displayed, along with a welcome message: 'Welcome: Madam Curie, Office of Technology Transfer Administrator, MADAM CURIE INSTITUTE OF PARIS RESEARCHERS'. The main heading is 'Invention Report Search', followed by a brief instruction: 'Fill in any or all of these fields. Your search will encompass all the invention reports from your grantee/contractor organization and from grantee/contractor organizations that have given your grantee/contractor organization permission to view their invention reports. When you find the invention report you need, you will be able to modify it, add a patent report, or add/modify utilization reports.'

The search form, titled 'Search for iEdison Invention Report', contains the following fields and controls:

- Invention Report Number: Text input field with a placeholder '(999)9999999-99-9999'.
- Invention Docket Number: Text input field.
- Invention Title: Text input field.
- Invention Keyword: Text input field.
- Invention Report Date: Text input field with a placeholder '(mm/dd/yyyy)'.
- Inventor Name (First): Text input field.
- Inventor Name (Last): Text input field.

For information on each field, please refer to the Glossary of iEdison Screen Fields topic.

NOTE: Your search encompasses all the invention reports from your organization and from other grantee or contractor organizations that have given your organization permission to view any invention reports that they are handling reporting compliance for or that may be co-owned (e.g., collaborating inventors).

You may use wild cards (%) to perform sub-string searches within your allowed search range (e.g., for Grant/Contract number you could use R%CA123456 to search for awards that had a Funding Agreement starting with R and then containing one or more other characters before ending with CA123456).

Invention Reports are search-able by the inventors first and last name. Any combination of upper and lower case letters may be used in this field. Using an inventor's full name when creating an Invention Report yields more accurate results when searching Invention Reports by inventors.

3. Enter the desired search information.
4. Perform one of the following options:
 - a. Click the Submit button to enter the search and open the Invention Report Search Results screen.
 - b. Click the Reset button to clear the search criteria.

5.3.12 Review/Accept/Warning - Research Tools Guideline Agreement

5.3.12.1 Review/Accept

The research tools guidelines agreement can now be reviewed and accepted online. When submitting an invention report that is licensed as an unpatented biological material or research tool, the acceptance terms of a Research Tools Guidelines Agreement automatically displays prior to submission of the report when the status is modified to Licensed as a Unpatented Biological Material or Research Tool.

NOTE: This Invention Status can only be set if the primary agency is the following: NIH, USDA/FS, USDA/ARS, or USDA/NIFA.

Research Tools Guidelines Agreement

The Research Tools Guidelines Agreement required for an invention that will generate no patents has NOT been previously agreed to. Please review the information below and indicate your agreement.

Agreement

You have indicated that instead of filing a patent to commercialize this invention, you have licensed it as an unpatented research product or resource (otherwise known as a research tool). Licensing NIH-funded intellectual property as an unpatented research product or resource satisfies the Bayh-Dole requirement for commercialization. However, NIH policy requires that you make sincere efforts to share such resources, especially within the research community.

I represent that to the best of my knowledge, my grantee/contractor institution is familiar with "Principles and Guidelines for Recipients of NIH Research Grants and Contracts on Obtaining and Disseminating Biomedical Research Resources." and has made a good faith effort to incorporate such principles in all licensing agreements associated with this invention.

Do you agree in principle to the terms provided?

WARNING:

Failure to make a good faith effort to incorporate sharing of unique research resources as part of licensing agreements associated with NIH-funded inventions could result in delays or withholding of further funding.

Please reconsider inclusion of provisions that support sharing of unique research resources in all licensing agreements associated with this invention.

5.3.13 Warnings when Creating or Modify Invention Reports

5.3.13.1 Duplicate Title Notification

The iEdison system alerts the user if a duplicate invention title is submitted. The system attempts to identify what could be an inadvertent duplicate data entry error. However, the system does not reject the submission of two invention reports with the same invention title.

5.3.13.2 Invention Report Date Notification Messages

The iEdison system notifies the user when an invention report date is entered that is greater than two months prior to the current date. Since most invention reports are reported within two months, this warning by the system is an attempt at identifying what could be an inadvertent data-entry error. However, the system does not reject the submission of an invention report with an invention report date greater than two months old.

1. Perform one of the following options:
 - a. Click the Submit Invention Report button to submit the report with the invention report date more than two months prior to today's date.
 - b. Click the Change Disclosure Date button to correct the invention report date.

5.3.13.3 Title Election Date Notification Messages

The iEdison system notifies the user to enter a title election date that is greater than two years (plus any allowed extensions) from the current date. The warning displayed by the system is an attempt to identify what could be an inadvertent data entry error. However, the system does not reject the submission of an invention report with a title election date greater than two years old (plus any allowed extensions).

5.4 Uploading and Viewing Invention Disclosure Documents

TTO Administrators and TTO Users can electronically submit and view the invention disclosure documents in the iEdison system. Invention Disclosure documents can be submitted in four different formats:

- PDF – Portable Document Format
- TIFF - Tagged Image File Format
- Text – Paste ASCII text in the Invention Disclosure Text field
- Paper – Fax or mail

Please note the following items:

1. The preferred method is a PDF or TIFF document.
2. If electronic PDF or TIFF documents are not available for upload into iEdison and if you need to consider paper submission please consult the funding agency. A link to the agency contact information can be found on the iEdison Home screen. Please see the Agency Office Contacts on the right side of the screen.
3. If no electronic PDF or TIFF documents are available and another electronic method is required by the funding agency, you may consider submitting ASCII text.

5.4.1 Add/Modify an Electronic Version of an Invention Disclosure Document

NOTE: It is recommended to create the Invention Report, add the Extramural Invention Report (EIR) number, and submit (save) the report first before uploading the invention disclosure document.

To add or modify an electronic version of an invention disclosure document:

1. Add/modify an invention report as described in the Add a New Invention Report topic and/or in the View/Modify an Invention Report topic.
2. Prior to submitting your changes:

3. A lock is cleared after the following:
 - a. Successful completion of a modification that updates the record
 - b. When a record modification is canceled

- c. When the user is logged out of the system (regardless of whether the user requested to log out or the session timed out)

6.3 Patent Report Properties

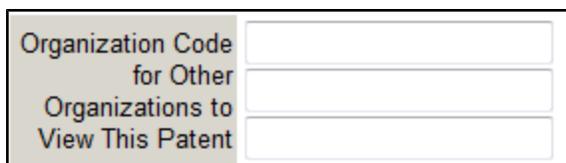

The iEdison system allows you to:

- Grant View Only Access of a Patent Report to another Organization
- Link a Patent Report to Other Patent Reports within the same Invention Report

6.3.1 Grant View Only Access to a Patent Report

The iEdison system allows you to grant view only access to a patent report to other organizations.

1. To grant view only access, on the Create New Patent Report screen or the Modify Patent Report screen, enter the organization codes you are granting access to in the Organization Code for Other Organizations to View this Patent field.

The image shows a screenshot of a software interface. On the left, there is a grey rectangular box containing the text 'Organization Code for Other Organizations to View This Patent' in a sans-serif font. To the right of this text are three vertically stacked, empty white rectangular input fields, each with a thin black border. The entire area is enclosed in a thin black border.

Only the organization that submitted the parent invention report has permission to edit the linked patent reports.

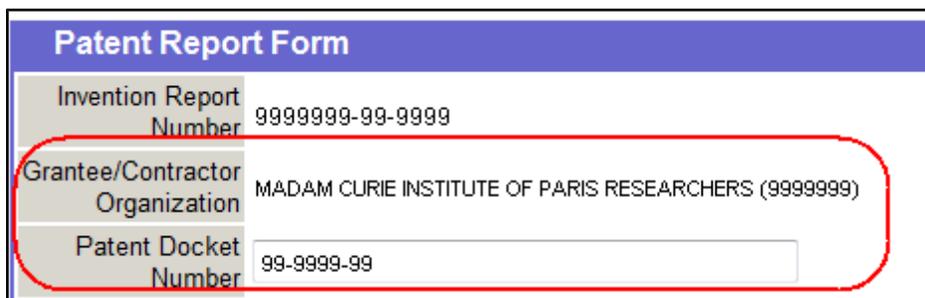

NOTE: You can grant access to a maximum of three other organizations.

6.3.2 Link a Patent Report

Patent reports can be linked in the iEdison system to other patents. Once patent reports are linked, the patent appears in the invention overview under the Related Patents and Inventions heading.

To link patents:

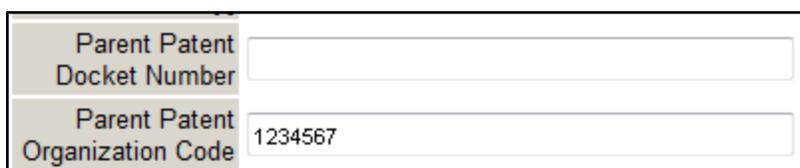

1. Search for and select the parent patent report as described in the Search for a Patent Report topic.
2. Write down the value of the Grantee/Contractor Organization and Patent Docket Number fields.

6.6 Record Locking

The following rules regarding record locking and invention reports are enforced in the iEdison system:

1. Only one user can update a given invention report at a time. Therefore, different users cannot update the same record simultaneously.
2. The same user cannot request a lock on more than one invention report at a time.
3. A lock is cleared after the following:
 - a. Successful completion of a modification that updates the record
 - b. When a record modification is canceled
 - c. When the user is logged out of the system (regardless of whether the user requested to log out or the session timed out)
 - d. When the specified number of session minutes has expired
 - i. The current default specified for the time a lock can be held is 90 minutes.
4. An appropriate error message is displayed when a user attempts to modify a record that they no longer retain a lock on.
5. An appropriate error message is displayed when a user attempts to modify a record that is locked by another user.

7.4 Record Locking

The following rules regarding record locking and invention reports are enforced in the iEdison system:

1. Only one user can update a given invention report at a time. Therefore, different users cannot update the same record simultaneously.
2. The same user cannot request a lock on more than one invention report at a time.
3. A lock is cleared after the following:
 - a. Successful completion of a modification that updates the record
 - b. When a record modification is canceled
 - c. When the user is logged out of the system (regardless of whether the user requested to log out or the session timed out)
 - d. When the specified number of session minutes has expired
 - i. The current default specified for the time a lock can be held is 90 minutes.
4. An appropriate error message is displayed when a user attempts to modify a record that they no longer retain a lock on.
5. An appropriate error message is displayed when a user attempts to modify a record that is locked by another user.

When the Export Message button is clicked, the system displays a Excel dialog window to save and/or open the Excel file with the appropriate messages. When the Excel file is closed, the system returns to the View Notification Messages screen.

9.3 Suppress a Notification Message

Notification messages for each user can be suppressed so that only messages related to specific invention or patent reports are displayed.

If the column on the left is checked, the system permanently suppresses that message for that user and cannot be undone without a request to the database administrators.

Also suppressing a message does not erase the message count in the weekly e-mail reminder.

NOTE: Administrators can always see all notification messages.

To suppress messages:

1. Select the appropriate check box(es) on the left.
2. To select all the check boxes, select the first check box in the Header row in the Search Results section.
3. Click the Suppress Message button.

When the Suppress Message button is clicked, the selected notification messages are removed and the system returns to the View Notification Messages screen.

10 Viewing Submitted Documents

TTO Administrators can view all invention disclosures, confirmatory licenses and government support clause documents submitted via the iEdison system. If invention records have been assigned to the TTO User, then the TTO User can see those records. They can also view all submitted invention disclosures for Grantee/Contractor that the TTO Administrator the TTO User account is associated with.

To view a document:

1. Select the Main Menu tab to access the Main Menu screen.
2. Select the View Submitted Documents hyperlink to access the View Documents screen.

11 eMail Notifications

The iEdison system has many built-in email notifications to ensure proper notification of all changes to your submissions. The notifications sent to extramural organizations are sorted alphabetically by message subject and listed below. The Message Subject reflects the text that appears as the subject in the email notification.

11.1 Extramural Messages

Here is a list of extramural email notifications/messages and their descriptions:

Message Subject	Description
iEdison Email Address Verification	An email message is generated automatically by the system and sent to the Office of Technology Transfer (TTO) administrator or the inventor, who registers a new iEdison organization, to validate the email address entered on the registration request form.
iEdison Email Address Verification Confirmation	When the TTO administrator or the inventor verifies his or her email address, the system replies to them with a message confirming that validation.
iEdison Invention Report Transferred Notification	When a user has transferred an invention report, the Invention Report Transferred Notification email is automatically generated and sent to the extramural TTO administrators who are assigned to the organization from whom rights are being removed and to the extramural TTO administrators who are assigned to the organization receiving the rights to the invention report being transferred. The email is also sent to the email address specified for iEdison user support.
iEdison Notification of Account Deletion	When an account is deleted, an email message is automatically sent to the account owner from the Commons Account Management System (AMS).
iEdison Notification of Account Modification	When account information has been modified, an email message with the changes is automatically sent to the account owner from the Commons Account Management System (AMS).

Table 25: Extramural Messages

Message Subject	Description
iEdison Notification of Change of Account Type	If an account administrator changes a user's account, either from an administrator to a regular user, or from one type of user within the federal system to another type, an email message is sent automatically from the Commons Account Management System (AMS) to the person whose account was changed.
iEdison Notification of Broken Patent Link	When an organization or inventor modifies a patent report that causes a parent/child patent or invention report relationship to be broken, an email message is sent automatically to all organizations that had been able to view any related patent report.
iEdison Notification of E-mail Address Change	When you change your email address, or when an administrator changes it for you, an email message with the new email address is sent automatically to the new email address from the Commons Account Management System (AMS).
iEdison Notification of Invention Report Reassignment	When an Office of Technology Transfer (TTO) administrator assigns an invention report to someone other than the person who entered the report (the default owner), an email message with details of the newly assigned invention report is sent to the new owner.
iEdison Notification of New Account	When an administrator creates an account, an email message containing the username, password, and permissions information is sent automatically to the person whose account has been created. The email message is generated from the Commons Account Management System (AMS).
iEdison Notification of Password Change	When an account administrator resets a user's password, an email message is automatically sent to the user with the new password from the Commons Account Management System (AMS). This randomly generated password must be changed the first time the user logs in.
iEdison Patent Report Transferred Notification	When an organization transfers a patent to another organization, an email message is sent automatically to the extramural TTO administrator at the organization relinquishing the rights and the organization receiving the rights, as well as the iEdison administration office.
iEdison	An email message is sent automatically to the signing authority for an
